Make lifestyle changes today for a healthier life tomorrow

After menopause the probability of developing chronic diseases increases. Prevention is the key; managing your lifestyle will lower the risks and will enhance quality of life.

For further information visit www.imsociety.org