

Subject: Exclusive Offer: Special Membership Offer for Members of Asia Pacific Menopause Federation

Dear All APMF Members,

I hope this message finds you in great health and spirits.

The International Menopause Society (IMS) Board of Directors and IMS Council of Affiliated Menopause Societies (CAMS) Steering Group just sent me an email on October, 3rd 2023 regarding a price offer for their membership, especially for APMF members. The International Menopause Society (IMS) is delighted to extend an exclusive offer to all members of the Asia Pacific Menopause Federation (APMF).

The International Menopause Society (IMS) is a dynamic, multidisciplinary organization that strives to enhance women's health during midlife and beyond. By becoming an IMS Member, you'll be joining a global community of professionals dedicated to advancing research, education, and advocacy in the menopause arena.

The IMS is offering a membership opportunity designed to enrich your experience and provide us with valuable resources, networking opportunities, and insights. By joining the IMS, we will not only elevate your engagement in menopause-related endeavors but also gain access to a global network of professionals dedicated to improving women's health worldwide.

I believe this offer will significantly enhance our journey within our community.

Best Regards,
